Arcadia Woman's Club Installs New Officers

Using as her theme "Building and Sharing In Harmony," Mrs. Phillip Sherk was installed president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia by Mrs. Edward D. Wylie, newly installed president of Verdugo District, C. F. W. C.

Installed with Mrs. Sherk were Mmes. Lawrence V. Shepherd, first vice president; David Shrader, proxy for William Orr, second vice president; Harvey Thombs, third vice president; Edward Verhoef, fourth vice president; Arthur Hughes, recording secretary; Joseph Scheuer, corresponding secretary; Alby R. Foy, federation secretary; John LeNoir, treasurer; Henry J. Funk, senior trustee; Clark Bridgman, acting as proxy for Raney G. Adams, junior trustee, and William Gibbs, parliamentarian.

For the installation, each officer carried a small fan with a separate color for her station. Mrs. Sherk carried a large, silver fan using the color of purple, symbolic of leadership. As each officer was installed, she removed a small colored ribbon from her fan and placed it on Mrs. Sherk's. At the completion of the ceremony, a large ribbon fan was formed.

Committee Chairman

The new president announce the committee chairmen for the year with Mmes. John Richardson, courtesy; Lucy Wyss, Americanism; Bruce G. McAbery, Bible; George P. Killeen, civic; James Brown, club calendar; Katherine Brown, decorations; John LeNoir, finance and budget; William Weaver, historian; and M. R. Clark, door.

Other chairmen were Mmes. Archie Wilson, hospitality; Henry Funk, house; Raymond Kennette, membership; Bert Schaar, philanthropy; James J. Flynn, press; Harvey Thombs, program; E. J. Fuerst, reception; George Fry, reservations; William D. Gibbs, resolutions; Leslie Campbell, social night; Ted Dancart, tickets; E. J. Verhoef, ways and means; Robert Gardner, year book.

Mrs. Bruce McAbery, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Thomas

B. Kemp, sang "A Collect for Federation Clubwomen."

Prior to the installation, Mrs. J. K. Weems presented the out-going president, Mrs. Fuerst, with a pin which was a gift from all her chairmen. Mrs. Fuerst then presented gavel and president's pin to Mrs. Sherk.

Decorations

Mrs. Arthur Hughes and her committee, Mmes. L. V. Shepherd, C. F. Noack, Albert Weickert, and Edward Verhoef made the maline trees and boxed evergreens used on the stage, as well as the corsages worn by the officers.

Mrs. N. E. Stadig was in charge of the beautifully appointed tea table which was placed in the foyer and set with silver and pink accessories. The table centerpiece was done by Mrs. Hortense Seymour and carried out the fan theme with flowers and tiny fans. Past presidents presided at the tea table with Mrs. Archie Wilson in charge. Mrs. James Cogswell attended the guest book.

Chairmaning the hospitality committee were Mrs. Herbert Gildeden and Mrs. Russell Lucas aided by their committee of ten.

Mrs. Sherk was gowned in a short, pale pink organza and lace dress and wore a white orchid, a gift from her husband.

MRS. J. K. WEEMS, chairman of philanthropy of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, presented the club's $400 scholarship to Bruce Hinton, a graduating senior of Arcadia high school. Bruce, who is just two weeks past his sixteenth birthday, speaks five languages, including Russian. He plans to attend UCLA and to major in languages.

Mrs. Thoombs Elected Prexy Of Music Group

Music Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia installed officers at the May meeting held at the home of Mrs. Lincoln Schick. Mmes. Estella Barries, Charlotte Wilson and Nina Smith were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Phillip Sherk, new president of the club, installing officer, used a sentimental theme and presented each incoming officer with a cymbidium corsage that had been made by Mrs. Archie Slover from orchids in her garden.

The officers included: Mmes. Harvey H. Thomas, chairman; Clark Bridgman, program chairman; Ahlert Stuhman, co-chairman; Lincoln Schick, recording secretary; Ariel Hoegee and Joseph Parnham, hospitality, and Florence Clark, publicity.

Members of the group presented a musical program; Mrs. Della Cox played piano selections, and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson gave violin selections accompanied by Mrs. Cox.

Those present included Mmes. Ann Argento, George Blanchard, Clark Bridgman, Estella Barries, Jane Childrey, William Cosgrove, Ted Dancier, Anita Doyle, Alby Foy, Ariel Hoegee, Charles Ganther, Martha Fowler, Irvin Logan, Samuel Knott, G. A. Pierce, Joseph Parnham, Ahlert Stuhman, Phillip Sherk, Lincoln Shick, Marshall Smith, Alfred LaRay, N. E. Stadig, Archie Thoombs and Archie Wilson. Guests were Mmes. Lucy Wyss and Arthur P. Hughes.

CLUB'S GARDEN GROUP ELECTS CHAIRMAN

ARCADIA — Mrs. James Cogswell is new chairman of the active garden department of the Woman's Club. She succeeds Mrs. N. E. Stadig.

Mrs. Cogswell is following family precedent in her new post. Her mother, Mrs. Earl Detra, twice served as chairman of the garden department and another term as president of the club.

Officers Elected

Installed with Mrs. Cogswell as officers for 1960-1961 were Mmes. Richard Nestler, vice chairman; James Burns, secretary, and C. J. Noack, treasurer.

At a brief business discussion following installation, the membership decided on the date of Aug. 31 for a bridge luncheon which will be held in the home of Mrs. James Skinner, 600 Arbolada Dr., as a ways and means project.

GARDEN SETTING was appropriate setting for installation of the Woman's Club Garden Department, as Mrs. Ernest Fuerst, left, outgoing president of the Club officially inducted the group's new officers, Mrs. C. J. Noack, treasurer; Mrs.

Garden Department Installs New Officers

The poolside cabana at the James Flinn home on San Carlos Road was the setting July 13 for the installation of new officers of the Garden Department of Arcadia Woman's Club, as Mrs. James Cogswell took over the duties of chairman from Mrs. N. E. Stadig.

Using a "Rainbow" theme, Mrs. Ernest Fuerst, outgoing president of the Woman's Club, presided at the ceremony, presenting each new officer with a nosegay of a different color.

The new chairman is the daughter of Mrs. Earl Detra, a past president of the club and twice chairman of the Garden Department.

Installed with her were Mrs. Richard Nestler, vice-chairman; Mrs. James Burns, secretary, and Mrs. C. J. Noack, treasurer.

Mrs. Stadig conducted her last luncheon, and after installation short business meeting before the ceremonies and business, there installation, and Mrs. Cogswell was swimming and bridge.

followed with another brief session at which time a bridge luncheon was decided on for Aug. 31 at the home of Mrs. James Skinner, 600 Arbolada Drive, as a ways and means project.

Mrs. Flinn, the hostess for the day, was appointed as publicity chairman for the group. A new resident in the community, Mrs. Flinn became affiliated with the Garden group last winter.

The afternoon started with Mrs. Stadig conducted her last luncheon, and after installation short business meeting before the ceremonies and business, there installation, and Mrs. Cogswell was swimming and bridge.

Western Party to Be Held by Club Group

Belles and beaux, boots and bustles will be the costume theme as members of the Evening Department of the Woman's Club and their husbands gather for the big Western party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelvin Turner on the evening of July 22.

Swimming, dancing and an evening of entertainment will be climaxed by a midnight buffet. Reservations must be made by July 21 to Mrs. George Derry or Mrs. Robert Titgemeyer.

Woman's Club Membership Committee Meets

Mrs. Raymond Kennett, 1869 Wilson Ave., who is membership chairman for the Woman's Club of Arcadia, held a meeting recently at her home for committee members in order to formulate plans for the coming year.

Mrs. Philip Sherk, president of the club, was present as were Mmes. Lawrence Shepherd, first vice president; F. Kenneth Gale, Russell Lucas, Carlton Eckermann, William Broughton, Joseph Parrish and Albert Weickert.

Mrs. William Weaver, co-chairman, was unable to attend as was another member of the committee, Mrs. Andrew C. Holman.

Brunch was served by the hostess and plans for the next club year which begins in October will be announced at a later date.

CFWC Junior Memberships to Hold Roundtable Dinner Tonight

State and senior officers will be guests of honor when clubs of Verdugo Metropolitan District, C.F.W.C. Junior Membership, meet at the first Roundtable Dinner of the year this evening.

Mrs. Richard Collins, Area C vice president, will bring greetings from the state president and outline details of the Area C Conference scheduled for Sept. 17 at the Surf Rider Inn, Santa Monica.

Also on hand to help initiate the year's club activities for the juniors will be Mrs. Edward D. Wylie, president of Verdugo District and Mrs. Donald Shephard, president of Metropolitan District, CFWC.

The site of the dinner affair will be the Masonic Hall, 7216 Valmont St., Tujunga, and members of the Foothill Junior Women's Club will serve as hostesses.

Mrs. James R. Case, president of the junior district, will conduct the business session during which reports will be given by 20 new district chairmen who will suggest possible club projects in various fields. Details of the district sponsored fashion show, planned for Oct. 29 at the Huntington-Sheraton

Hotel in Pasadena, will be given by Mrs. Robert Atkinson, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. Claude Williams, convention chairman, will announce the site for the 1960 convention.

Also on the agenda for the evening's business session will be the presentation of the philanthropy ballot by Mrs. Richard Dodge, district philanthropy chairman.

Organizations that will vie for support from the Verdugo Metropolitan Juniors this year are the Booth Memorial Home and Hospital, which has received district assistance for the past two years, the Civitan Foundation School for Retarded Children in Pasadena, the Los Angeles County Hospital, the Marianne Postig School and the Little Saints Ranch. Mrs. A. E. Jandorf, executive director of the Little Saints Ranch, will explain the functions of the medical research center.

Club Garden Department to Have Poolside Luncheon at Skinners'

A poolside salad luncheon, followed by an afternoon of bridge and canasta, is being planned for members and guests of the Garden Department of Arcadia Woman's Club on Wednesday, Aug. 31.

The party will be held at the home of Mrs. James Skinner, 600

Arbolada Drive, beginning at noon. Guests are reminded to dress casually for a relaxing afternoon, and enjoy a before-lunch swim if they wish.

Another highlight of the day will be a "White Elephant" sale, with those attending requested to bring articles which they no longer want, but which someone else may like.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. James Cogswell, Hillcrest 7-7936; Mrs. C. F. Noack, Hillcrest 7-2752, or Mrs. Richard Nestler, Hillcrest 6-3568.

State Federation of Woman's Clubs Release Procedure Book

Clubwomen all over California select those best suited to the interests of the members and the community. Procedure Book just received from the California Federation of Women's Clubs. This "Blueprint for Action" contains the program of Federation. Since the lifeline of a club is its program, Mrs. Earl J. Hazelton of Orland, president, C.F.W.C. urged club leaders to analyze the programs offered and panic program of "Responsive, Responsible Citizenship."

Mrs. Robert Bidwell of Santa Ana, narcotics chairman calls attention that as far back as 1920 California Clubwomen were trying to prevent this vicious narcotic problem. Proposed plan of attack for this year stresses the need for a White House Conference on Narcotics, for continued research towards a positive treatment program for the addicted, local programs for prevention and control; clubwomen to continue to support legislative action for strong laws, good enforcement, stiff sentences and a proper hospitalization program.

The attention, activities and emphasis of the International Affairs Department will be toward the Western Hemisphere.

Sound conservation demands wise and prudent use — without waste or abuse of our natural resources. This is a must for survival, points out Mrs. J. B. Atkisson of Pasadena, conservation chairman, who asks clubwomen to study and support programs that will provide protection for essential resources and to be informed on needs and practices pertinent to community welfare.

The home life department will place emphasis for the two years ahead upon responsible, responsive citizenship by "Precept and Example in Home Life."

ACTIVITIES

Hawaiian Dinner Planned

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Dennis of Arcadia will be the scene of a "California Luau" sponsored by the Arcadia Women's Club tomorrow. A Hawaiian dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. after a swim in the pool.

The ways and means event will feature authentic Hawaiian entertainment and gifts including a special item brought from the Islands by Mrs. William D. Gibbs, club member who recently vacationed there.

Mrs. Edward Verhoef, general chairman, announces that Mrs. Joseph W. Scheuer is chairman of the decorating committee. Other chairmen and members assisting with the party are Mmes. John M. Lenoir, Fred C. Schindler, James W. Ahearn, William Moberg, Ernest J. Fuerst, William S. Orr, Raney Adams, Lawrence Shepherd, Robert H. Lane and George Grinstead. After dinner and entertainment there will be dancing.

TELEVISION RESOLUTION IS PASSED

The Federated Women's Clubs have opposed pay television and members of the television department have been active in voicing this opposition because pay television would make this service available mostly to those who are able to pay, but it would deprive people in institutions and people with limited incomes the pleasure of enjoying this free entertainment.

Therefore, at the Verdugo District Board meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Wylie, on Sept. 8, the Legislative chairman Mrs. P. E. Willis introduced the following resolution which was passed by district board members.

Resolved: "That Verdugo District SFWC with a membership of approximately 3700 members reaffirms its stand and strongly protests the inauguration of pay television."

Members were urged to write to city officials, state and national legislators, informing them of our strong stand against pay television.

On Sept. 26 Mrs. Mae M. Hunsbeen, first vice president of Verdugo District and dean of presidents will hold a presidents conference at the Pasadena Woman's Club-58 S. Sierra Blvd., Pasadena, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. All presidents and first vice presidents of clubs that comprise the Verdugo District are invited to attend this conference. Luncheon reservations may be made with Mrs. Walker, CA. 2-5691.

Mrs. Edward D. Wylie announces that there will be a Verdugo District CFWC board meeting to be held in the auditorium of headquarters, Tuesday Afternoon Club, Monday, Oct. 3. Executive committee will meet at 10 a.m. and the Executive board at 11 a.m.

Woman's Club Hosts Luau Party At Dennis Home

The beautiful gardens of the Robert Dennis home in Arcadia was the scene recently of the Arcadia Woman's Club Luau. The grounds were gaily decorated in the Hawaiian motif and the colorful lighting and tiki torches accented the gay costumes of the guests.

Following a traditional luau dinner, Mr. Dennis acted as master of ceremonies and presented a delightful program of Hawaiian dances directed by Irene Elvers. One of the highlights of the evening was an impromptu hula dance performed by several husbands of club members which added much to the gaiety of the evening.

Many lovely gifts were given by the club and James Ahearn, who recently returned from the Islands, was the recipient of a large monkeypod condiment dish. Mrs. Edward Verhoef was general chairman.

Arcadia Sets Up Community Chest Goal of $70,078

Kick-Off Day
For Drive
Slated Oct. 10

Goals Established For Each Division Of Solicitors

ARCADIA—A goal of $28,950 has been established for the residential solicitation in the 1960 Arcadia Community Chest. Chairman Harold K. Schone has announced in setting Oct. 10 as the kick-off day for volunteers to rap on every door of Arcadia homes.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbs, residential chairman, explained that the goals have been established for each division of solicitors, mostly representatives of participating agencies. However, the Arcadia Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club will provide volunteers to aid some of the 14 agencies which will share in the campaign proceeds.

Schone said organizational plans call for a neffort by all volunteers to clean up their calls Monday night and make an immediate report to a control point established in the Community Room of the Glendale Federal Savings office.

The chairman explained that this year's campaign has been developed to provide more volunteers and with a lighter canvassing load for each person asking for funds. For this reason, many divisions are expected to be able to make a 100 per cent report at the end of the first day of the residential drive.

The residential divisions are being asked to make the largest contribution to the $70,078 Arcadia campaign goal. Industry, business and professional soliciting now in progress has a goal about two thirds that of Mrs. Gibbs' army of Chest volunteers.

Incomplete reports of the first week of canvassing in the non-resident divisions indicated that contributions are about the same as last year placing added emphasis on the residential drive. Last year Arcadia Community Chest failed to meet its goal by almost $5,000.

Record Army of Volunteers Aids Chest Here This Year

Volunteer support for the Arcadia Community Chest has expanded into new segments of the population this year. This extra effort will be reflected tonight when a blanket coverage of every home in the city will be undertaken with many organizations involved.

Although only 14 agencies will share in the division of the $70,078 sought by volunteers, organizations only remotely interested in the work done by these agencies have joined in the residential drive for tonight. Others began fund soliciting in other fields last week under a revised organizational setup developed for the Community Chest here for the first time.

Asking for the largest sum ever needed to support youth groups, needy persons and other service outlets, will be a record army of solicitors.

Both the Arcadia Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club will make a group supporting effort in tonight's solicitation. So will the Fireman's Association auxiliary. Last Friday all school children in the city did their bit by carrying home the message of the chest chairman, City Manager Harold K. Schone. Members of the Assistance League are actively working because of their wide interest in helping unfortunate children.

Last week scores of professional, business and commerce officials took time to ask those in their fields in Arcadia for support. Today begins a clean up in these divisions.

Former mayor, Conrad Reibold, who is serving as co-vice-chairman with Richard Rowe, has been serving in the dual role of briefing as well as soliciting funds among utility company workers who live here and work elsewhere as well as those who work for public utilities in Arcadia.

Bankers, doctors, mercantile leaders, industrialists, realtors, others are engaged in the campaign to reach the city's 1960 goal by mid-October.

In addition year-round supporters of agencies whose work is carried on through Community Chest efforts, are again part of the big push which begins tonight.

At the same time the chest chairman has urged that a large segment of the city's wage earners who work in Los Angeles and elsewhere throughout the Southland be their own solicitors where they make charity contributions through office and plant deductions by designating that their contributions be earmarked for Arcadia.

Photographer of 'Twelve Disciples' Gives Illustrated Lecture at Club

Mrs. Alberta Rae (Sune) Richards, whose photographs of the twelve Disciples have been accepted for illustrating Biblical works in many different religions, gave an illustrated lecture on "My Search for the Disciples" at a recent meeting of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

The speaker, who has won special citations from Professional Photographers of America for her work, told of the 12 years experience and many hours of study devoted to the men she sought to portray the twelve Disciples.

It was a challenge, she said, to convince the men to be photographed, and the old gentleman who posed for "Simon" challenged her to swim a mile before he would work for her.

Varied Subjects

Several subjects, Mrs. Richards explained, were students in the Theological College from which she was graduated and also the college where she taught photography and oil painting. Others included a salesman, a minister, a TV technician on a program in which she was appearing, actors, relatives and friends.

Mrs. Archie Wilson, in the absence of program chairman Mrs. Harvey H. Thombs, introduced the program speaker.

Mrs. Philip Sherk, club president, welcomed members and guests at the mid-month meeting and requested a moment of silent prayer in memory of Mrs. Ida Parker, who recently passed away. Mrs. Parker was the last charter member of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

Literature Department

Mrs. R. A. Young, chairman of the Literature Department, the honored department for the meeting, presented her officers. She also introduced Mrs. Willard Kortum, Verdugo District Literature chairman, who reported on the Literature Festival coming up next February.

Mrs. Edward Verhoef, ways and means chairman, announced an evening card party to be held Nov. 18.

Mrs. Raymond M. Kennett, membership chairman, introduced new members, Mmes. Allan Grogan, Joe Wray, Francis Saylor, John Stigile and W. Clair Moore.

Mrs. Bruce McAbery gave the inspirational reading and Mrs. Lucy Wyss led in the flag salute. Mrs. William Logan accompanied the singing of "America".

A buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. Joseph Parnham, chairman, and Mmes. Lucy Wyss, William Adams and Edward Verhoef.

Fall foliage decorating the clubhouse and foyer was arranged by Mrs. Verhoef, Mrs. Homer W. Brown, Mrs. John A. Richardson, Mrs. William W. Weaver, Mrs. Carlton Eckermann and Mrs. Robert Lane.

Arcadia Rose Float Gets 'Go-Ahead' Signal Today

With the Arcadia Tournament of Roses Float Fund nudging the $5,500 mark, Float Chairman F. Harold Roach today announced that the go-ahead order will be placed for Arcadia's "By The Sleepy Lagoon" float.

"The amount already contributed, plus other commitments that have not yet been forwarded to the Chamber, brings us within about $1,000 of the necessary amount," Roach stated.

"I certainly believe that the additional thousand dollars will be forthcoming from residents, organizations and business people who have not yet sent their contributions. When we are this close to the goal, it appears almost a certainty that the float will be built," he added.

The announcement came a day ahead of the "make or break" deadline of Nov. 15 as set by the Chamber Float Committee.

45-FOOT FLOAT

With the necessary money in view, the word to proceed will be given to James Femino, who designed the Arcadia entry. The okay means that Femino can proceed with basic construction work for the beautiful 45-foot float, counted as a possible competitor for the sweepstakes award.

The design depicts a scene at the Arboretum, with the Queen

Anne's Cottage at the rear, and three pools representing the lagoon along the forward portion. It is keyed perfectly to the Tournament theme of "Ballads in Blossoms."

Roach expressed appreciation to the public for its support of the fund-raising campaign — a campaign that was designed specifically to allow Arcadians to participate personally in the development and building of the float so that it would truly represent the city.

CONTRIBUTORS

Chamber of Commerce Manager Hal Wentworth Friday reported that 2,607 residents have contributed a dollar or more for a total of $3,553; 62 businesses have added $1,264 to the fund, and 15 organizations have contributed a total of $607.

Names of residents who have contributed are being published in the Tribune as space permits.

Added to the list of groups this week were the Woman's Club of Arcadia—$150; the Arcadia Music Club—$25, and the Arcadia Lions Club—$100.

New business donors include The Dog House, Louis P. Black, Arcadia Floor Coverings, Realtor Joe E. Earll, Ruby Rickards Bake Shop, Arco Business Service, Clean & Clear Pool Service, Frank's Barber Shop, Graham Brothers, Inc., Eaton's Santa Anita, Inc., the Los Angeles Turf Club, and Harry Curland Catering Santa Anita Race Track.

EVENING DEPARTMENT PLANS CHRISTMAS JOY FOR CHILDREN

For the ninth year, members of the Evening Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, are busily at work planning to bring Christmas joy to half orphans, and they will meet Monday night, Nov. 21 at the clubhouse to wrap hundreds of gifts.

These children are not orphans, but are under the care of the County Welfare Bureau for various reasons. The Bureau notifies the department of the number of needy children and this year there are 380 gaily wrapped packages to be distributed.

This tremendous undertaking is started in June when plans are made to purchase individual gifts for children with an age range from infants to age 16. Mrs. LeVerne Mohr, philanthropy chairman, assisted by Mrs. Dene Christie, chose gifts suited to each of these children, taking advantage of sales and watching for good buys. This year, the group was fortunate to receive a large donation of wonderful plastic toys from U. S. Plastic Toys in Pasadena. There is a wide variety of gifts, including large stuffed toys, mosaic kits, roller skates, models, stationary and pens, games and clothing. Thirty-five teenage girls will receive skirts made to an exact measurement by Woman's Club members. Each skirt will have a matching sweater.

Department members never know the name of the child or where they live as the gifts are distributed by county welfare workers.

Funds for this worthwhile project are raised through a bridge luncheon in May and the annual white Christmas Ball, to be given on Nov. 26, at the Huntington Hotel. Mrs. Paul Malling is dance chairman. Reservations may be made by calling Hillcrest 7-0128. Mrs. Roger Titgemeyer is ticket chairman.

Arcadia Musicians Give Program To Club Section

The Music Department of the Arcadia Woman's Club opened the fall season under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harvey Thombs with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Ted Daniciart on Oct. 25. Assisting as cohostesses were Mrs. Lincoln Schick, Mrs. Ahlert Stuhrman and Mrs. Ariel Hoegge.

Mrs. T. L. Wagenbach, president of the San Gabriel Valley Symphony Association, was introduced and spoke briefly to the club on the activities of the Association and the outstanding programs being presented for the 1960-61 season.

An impressive program was presented by Mrs. Kathleen Callagy and Mrs. Marion Bridgman. Mrs. Callagy played an organ accompaniment to Mrs. Bridgman's flute solos: "Melody" by Gluck, "Sheep and Lambs" by Sidney Homer, "In A Monastery Garden" by Albert Ketelbey and Schubert's "Serenade." Mrs. Callagy also played the organ accompaniment for her own soprano rendition of "Recit et Air de Lia" by Claude Debussy and "The Star" by James H. Rogers.

Those enjoying the program were: Mmes. Nelson Barrus, Fred Schindler, Helen Grannatt, Harriet Clugston, Robert Ferrante, Charles Ganther, John McDowell, Ariel Hoegge, Samuel Nock, LeRoy Anderson, John Doyle, Ahlert Stuhrman, Marty Burton, Irwin Logan, Alby Foy, Harvey Thombs, Archie Wilson, Gladys Dusenbury, Leonard Brooks, Thatcher Jordan, Humbert Argento, Bobby Sheppard, Stanley Childrey, Lyman Vollenstine, John Ross, George Blanchard, Leonard Cartwright, Joanna Olsen, Lincoln Schick, Ted Daniciart and Clark Bridgman.

ENTHUSIASM for Arcadia's representation in the coming Tournament of Roses spurred many civic organizations to add their share to the float building fund. At top, Float Committee Chairman F. Harold Roach accepts $25 check from Mrs. Jesse Balser, president of the Leona Club, and Mrs. Don Hughes, chairman of the Leona luncheon which raised the money. Below, Mrs. Philip Sherk, president of Arcadia Woman's Club, and Mrs. Raymond Kennett, chairman of its special projects committee, hand over over $150 which they raised with a bake sale to Dr. J. Kendall McBane, Chamber of Commerce president. At left, Roach again received contribution of $100 from Harry Russell on behalf of the Arcadia Lions Club. Total contribution as of Friday amounted to $5541, coming from individual residents, clubs and business people. The remaining $1000 needed for float construction is expected to be raised this week.

Arts and Crafts Department Stages Bazaar at Woman's Club Luncheon

The Woman's Club of Arcadia held its mid-month meeting last Wednesday at the clubhouse with Mrs. Philip Sherk, president, welcoming members and guests. Mrs. Sherk introduced two members of the Arcadia Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Charles Coulter, program chairman, and Mrs. Troy Bond, corresponding secretary. Guests of members introduced were Mrs. Charles Caward from Wintergarden, Fla., and Mrs. R. S. Page.

The Arts and Crafts Department headed by Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, was the honored department of the day, and members decorated the clubhouse with pine cone turkeys, chrysanthemums and colored leaves. The department also staged a bazaar with lovely articles that members of the department had worked on during the year.

The executive board suggested that members bring gifts for the White Christmas program of Arcadia instead of the usual gift exchange, which was heartily endorsed by the membership.

Mrs. Raymond Kennett, membership chairman, introduced the following new members: Mrs. Robert Hannah, from Ohio, Mrs. Jack A. Grannatt, Mrs. Desmond Swager and Mrs. Ernest Von Bauer.

Luncheon

A delicious luncheon was prepared and served by the Music Department under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Parnham.

Mrs. Kennett announced that $150 was raised on the fund-raising project for the Arcadia Float in the Tournament of Roses Parade and that the money had been turned over to the Float Fund. She also thanked the Juniors for their support.

Mrs. Sherk expressed deep sympathy for the passing of Mrs. R.S. Cole. Mary Lee Cole was chairman of the International Affairs Dept. of the club and a beloved member. Members were requested to donate to the Cancer Fund in lieu of flowers. Mrs. Sherk appointed Mrs. Harry Russell as the chairman of the Community Improvement Project.

Mrs. Harvey Thombs, program chairman, presented the lovely Joyce Zaecaro, soprano. She sang selections from musicals, and folk songs. Mrs. Zaecaro is an Arcadia resident and we may well be proud of having her with us.

Club Ladies Dispatch 380 Gifts To Youngsters in Foster Homes

A tremendous Christmas project was completed last week by members of the Evening Department of Arcadia Women's Club, as 380 beautifully wrapped gifts were sent on their way to gladden the hearts and strengthen the morale of children throughout the San Gabriel Valley.

The Department's gifts bring happiness and pleasure to these children who are not orphans but under the care of the Los Angeles County Welfare Bureau because of various reasons, often a mother's illness. Although foster homes are chosen with great care, payment made by the state law "to provide the best substitute for their own home for those children who must be given foster care" often cannot provide the extra comfort that these children need, especially during the Christmas holidays.

In June the philanthropy chairman, Mrs. LaVerne Mohr, assisted by Mrs. Dene Christie and Mrs. Leonard Fullmer, started buying gifts and materials. Each member also makes a cotton skirt to the exact measurement of a teenage girl. This skirt, coupled with a cardigan wool sweater, is often the only new clothing that this child receives.

All members met at the clubhouse on the evening of Nov. 21, armed with gay paper, colorful ribbons, tags and seals, and busily wrapped the packages containing skates, stationery and pens, trucks, cuddly dolls and toys, games, mosaic kits, and clothing.

This is the ninth year of the project, made possible by the annual White Christmas Ball and the annual May Daze salad bridge luncheon. "Although this seems like an old Project to some," said Mrs. Mohr, "every year renews our faith that each drop of compassion makes for a better world and when we see the mounds of gifts for these unfortunate children, we feel in our hearts that all the time and effort we expend in our fund raising campaigns is well rewarded."

Club Department To Have Party

Twinkling lights and gay decorations will greet members of the Evening Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia as they gather at the home of Mrs. Robert Titgemeyer tonight for their annual Christmas party.

Mrs. George Derry, Department chairman, reminds all members to bring a package for the gift exchange. Reports will be made on the gifts project for foster children and the successful White Christmas Ball. Donations have been made to the Arcadia White Christmas program and the Arcadia Float Fund. Mrs. William Marquardt and Mrs. Anthony Anger will serve as co-hostesses with Mrs. Titgemeyer.

Henry Lewis Ewan, Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration; The Rev. and Mrs. St. Elmo Nauman of Arcadia Congregational Church; The Rev. and Mrs. Lyndell Cheeves, Arcadia Church of Christ, and The Rev. and Mrs. Kermit Rietema, Arcadia Christian Reformed Church.

The Rev. Danneman led the invocation and Dr. Benjamin extended greetings from the clergy.

Guests of the club members were Miss Ethel Cooper and Mmes. Frank Hooton, Byron Burchby, Elaine Julian, M. H. Barrus, Charles Martin, Eugene Pearl, Elise Coward and Dudley M. Covell. Also Mrs. C. E. Martin of San Marino, and Mrs. George H. Derry, treasurer of the Arcadia Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. N. E. Stadig introduced the program. First, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, accompanied by Mrs. Thatcher sang three Christmas songs. Then Clifford Guest entertained with Vento Impressionism. His remarkable voice produced many sounds with much realism and his wit and humor was delightful. He had his dummies "Susie" and "Junior." Mr. Guest also gave interesting facts of his native Australia and interpreted songs such as "Waltzing Matilda."

The clubhouse was beautifully decorated with many Christmas trees and the committee responsible was Mrs. John M. LeNoir, chairman, and Mmes. George W. Grinstead, James W. Ahearn, Michael Erickson and Edward Verhoef.

After a brief recess there was a short business meeting. Mrs. Sherk reminded members to bring soaps, dish and face cloths, towels, cotton blankets and dried foods to the Christmas party next meeting in place of a gift exchange.

Luncheon Session Scheduled

Arcadia Woman's Club will meet Wednesday for a noon luncheon session at the clubhouse and also will sponsor, through the ways and means department, a card party luncheon Jan. 23 at noon in the same place.

The program for this week's meeting will be "Two for the Show", a theatrical review by the husband-wife team of Rena and Stanley Waxman, radio and TV artists.

The Club's evening department will be featured at the meeting.

Mrs. Edward Verhoef, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the bridge and canasta party which will be opened to friends as well as members.

THE WAXMANS
... 'Two for the Show'

Dynamic Husband-Wife Team to Give Program at Woman's Club Wednesday

The Waxmans, a dynamic husband-wife team, will present their magnificent program "Two for the Show" Wednesday, for members and guests of the Woman's Club of Arcadia at the regular luncheon meeting. The Evening Department of the Club is decorating the clubhouse for the day, and Mrs. Philip Sherk, president, will extend greetings and preside at a short business meeting.

Unique among stage artists, the Waxmans create a host of characters, an illusion of setting and a totality of impressions that add up to true theatrical impact and excitement. Critics say of them "they entertain, they enchant and they touch the heart."

Rena Craig Waxman appeared, while still in college, with Katherine Cornell. Further stage appearances in New York followed, along with a full and varied career in radio. She was featured on hundreds of major network programs emanating from New York in choice roles with such stars as Orson Welles, Helen Hayes, Ida Lupino and many other luminaries. Under the aegis of the NBC Artists Bureau, she began her club career as a "One Woman Show" and made over a thousand solo appearances in the country. She brings a captivating charm, keen artistic temperament to the platform. She happily shares the stage now with her gifted husband.

Stanley Waxman began his acting career with Walter Hampden. Upon graduation from college he appeared on the New York stage in a featured role under the direction of Max Reinhardt.

In the field of radio, Mr. Waxman gained recognition as one of the finest dramatic actors on the air. After four years in the Army he resumed his acting career in Hollywood and many featured roles followed. When he joined his wife, the couple fulfilled their long-hope of becoming a drama-duo.

Evening Section Of Woman's Club To Meet Tonight

Evening Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, will meet tonight at 7:45 at the Covina home of Mrs. Peter Proulx. Mrs. William Harris and Mrs. Arne Jensen will be co-hostesses.

Mrs. LaVern Mohr entertained the board at her home on Jan. 9 and at that time, Mrs. Jensen was appointed to serve as recording secretary for the remainder of the year.

Plans were made for the decorations to be arranged for the regular luncheon meeting of the club.

Mrs. George Derry, chairman, will hostess a bridge party at her home on Wednesday, Jan. 25, for members of the department. Reservations are to be made by Jan. 23.

An exciting Day at the Races is being planned by Mrs. Leonard Fullmer, program chairman, for Thursday, March 9 at Santa Anita Turf Club. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Fullmer.

Woman's Club of Arcadia Entertains Civic Leaders at Annual Celebration

"We must tell the story of America more eloquently than ever before" were the closing remarks of Rodger Swearingen Ph.D., journalist, educator, research scholar, linguist and consultant to the U.S. government, who was guest speaker Wednesday, Feb. 1 at the annual Civic Day celebration of the Woman's Club of Arcadia.

The clubhouse was beautifully decorated in the Valentine theme and Valentine trees made a colorful display at the long tables.

Mrs. Phillip Sherk, president, welcomed members and guests. In a short talk she lauded civic leaders saying, "Organized 47 years ago, the club is still vitally interested in civic affairs."

Mayor Don Camphouse extended greetings from the city saying, "You are women to match our community."

Mrs. George Killeen Jr., Civic Day chairman, welcomed civic leaders who were special guests of the day:

Mayor and Mrs. Camphouse, Councilmen Jesse Balser and Edward Butterworth; City Manager Harold Schone; City Clerk Christine Van Maanen; City Attorney James Nicklin; City Treasurer Catherine Murphy; Controller Wayne Harris; Director of Public Works Charles Lortz; Water Superintendent John Grivich; Chief of Police Robert Seares; Fire Chief Lawrence Way; Recreation Director John Panatier; Planning Commission Secretary Leslie Talley; Arcadia School Board President Harold Lietz; Superintendent of Schools Dr. Burtis Taylor; Chamber of Commerce President Dr. J. Kendall McBane; Mrs. John Baker, president, Women's Division, Chamber of Commerce, and F. Harold Roach, Arcadia Tribune publisher; Mrs. Howard Dauer, Arcadia Coordinating Council president; Mrs. Harold Acker, president, Arcadia PTA Council, and Mrs. Catherine Mundy, Woman's editor, Arcadia Tribune.

Unable to be present were Councilmen Conrad Reibold and Elton Phillips and City Librarian Homer Fletcher.

The speaker, who has visited Russia many times, chose as his topic, "Russia Today." He brought out that many of our misconceptions of Russia today arise from the fact that the Russian government is very sensitive about comparisons of their way of life with ours, so consequently we hear only about the areas of real progress.

Despite the fact that we hear constantly how superior Russian education is to our own, "Not all Russian students are brilliant or all teachers exceptions." Women outnumber men seven to one; and it is permissible for children to be taught religion in the home but as 95 per cent of the women work, there are not many home to teach the young.

Dr. Swearingen stated that there were three things the Communists had not been able to change, vodka, the ballet, and music.

Mrs. Archie Wilson, hostess chairman, was assisted by the following: Mmes. Sherk, Killeen, William Gibbs, William Ferris, Elmer Godfrey, Freeman Gates, Harry Russell, William Orr, Joseph Parnham, Lawrence Shepherd, Fred Schindler, Joseph Scheuer, William Adams, Richard Straub, Ernest Fuerst, Alby Foy, Charles Stewart, Daniel Slattery, Bert Schaar, Humbert Argento, Ray Allen Young and John P. IN THREE PARTS

SALLY MANLEY, TODD KROCK TOP ANNUAL WOMAN'S CLUB MUSICALE

By JESSIE GLOVER,
Tribune Music Critic

The Music Department of the Women's Club of Arcadia gave its annual music program last Wednesday following a Lenten luncheon in the auditorium of its Clubhouse. Mrs. Lincoln Schick introduced the three-part program.

Part I consisted of four songs from light opera sung by Sally Manley of "Merry Widow" fame in the Arcadia Community Theatre and Todd Kock, graduate of the Pasadena Playhouse, light opera tenor in the Mission Playhouse, and in "Vagabond King" in New York.

Miss Manley came briskly downstage, followed by the tenor. They sang Romberg's "You Will Remember" in voices mature, well-rounded and clear, their enunciation perfect. (What a treat it is when one can understand our tongue in song!)

Mr. Kock proved in his "I've Got Plenty of Nothin'" that he has plenty of one thing—a magnificent voice that filled the auditorium with charming bravado. In "Summertime" Miss Manley revealed remarkable smoothness as she negotiated the registers from middle C to high C, polish, and interpretive power.

Their duet "Bess, Yo' Is My Woman Now" showed increasing power. (It is always interesting to watch the development of a voice in a performance. Unlike instrumentalists, most vocal soloists cannot rehearse much on the day of an engagement for fear of wearing off the velvet beforehand.)

In Part II Florence Anderson played with delicate feeling Madame Townsend's "Berceuse" and "Lullaby" by Primi.

When the curtains opened on Part III, the trio Marion Bridgman, flutist, Florence Anderson, and Mona Emanuel, harpist, graced the front center of the stage.

They played Boisdreff's liquid "The Brook," Miss Bridgman enchantingly fluting the melody. In the popular "Intermezzo" by Provoost Miss Anderson's violin soloed, as well as in Schubert's "Serenade." Victor Herbert's "Indian Love Call" called forth Miss Bridgman's flute, rising above the other instruments with tantalizing appeal.

Marion Bridgman brings to her performances something more precious than even her musical prowess—her scintillating personality. Think of her on a rainy day, and you find sunlight flooding your room. She is to me a flutist prima donna not unlike the vision I get when I think of Jenny Lind the "Swedish Nightingale" and how she must have appealed to people. Except that Miss Bridgman's fluting appeal is nearer that of the nightingale itself, and, at times, approximating what Pan's flutings must have sounded like floating out from his olive groves. She was first flutist with the brilliant Chicago All Women's Symphony during its lifetime.

Virginia Stuhrman gave excellent piano support to the soloists and violinist. Miss Stuhrman was never obtrusive, always there on top of the tempo changes made by the artists, and vivid enough to be called (as is the growing custom), not an accompanist, but a co-artist.

'Marvels of Mind' Program Presented

"Marvels of the Mind" was the topic last Saturday evening as husbands and members of the Evening Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia were entertained at a dinner party at the club house.

Dick Johnson of the National Automobile Club was guest speaker and gave a demonstration of contact mind reading. By means of a scientific principle, he interpreted certain mental impulses of a volunteer from the audience, and successfully located a member of the audience, picked up an object which the first person had been holding and delivered the object to the second secretly selected person. Mr. Johnson was securely blindfolded during the entire experiment.

Along with his unusual demonstrations, Mr. Johnson gave an informative talk on how to use the subconscious mind to a greater advantage in being creative or solving business and personal problems.

The speaker received his B.A. degree at Azusa College and went on to do graduate work at the Sacramento State College. He is District Manager for National Auto Club's Pasadena office.

Mrs. Arne Jensen and Mrs. Peter Proulx were in charge of the dinner preparations. Mrs. Dene Christie decorated the tables and club house.

Preceding dinner, members gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Langlois. Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. William Moore, William Marquardt, Peter Proulx, Arne Jensen, Earl Hadady, Jack Moore, Joseph Scheuer, George Derry, LaVerne Mohr, Earl Kennedy, Dene Christie, William Harris, Gorge Wimbish, and Leonard Fullmer.

Mrs. Ray Young Urges Action Against Pornographic Material at District Meet

The first Literature Festival of the Verdugo District, CFWC, was held Feb. 16 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Monrovia Woman's Club. Mrs. Willard L. Kortum, district literature chairman, called the meeting for literature departments of all women's clubs in the district.

Mrs. Ray Allen Young, chairman of the Literature Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, served as chairman of the literature display for district at the festival.

Mrs. Young introduced a motion calling for the Verdugo District Board to endorse a resolution requesting the California state legislators to revise the existing laws to reduce the availability of pornographic material to youths up to 21 years of age at the corner news stands. To organize a community awareness program to bring pressure by public opinion and community action on the publishers and sellers of pornographic material, to deter the production and distribution of such material, and that copies of the resolution be sent to the State Legislature and to the legislative chairmen of every federated club in California.

A 100-year-old Bible, displayed on the podium, was opened to the literature.

verse which read "Thy words are a light unto my feet," this was flanked by two cherrywood candelabra belonging to Mrs. Grace Nock.

Great Books

A trash barrel filled with pornographic material was prominently displayed as a contrast to the wide display of the world's finest literature.

Mrs. Bruce McAbery of the Arcadia Club, Mrs. C. A. Wirth, Temple City, and Mrs. F. I. Butters, San Gabriel, presented a Pindaric ode in narration, song and piano.

Mrs. McAbery won second place for prose and poetry in the creative literature contest.

Mrs. Nellie Cook Wood, from the Los Angeles Post Office, guest speaker, talked on pornographic literature.

Nina Varela to Entertain at Club Meet Wednesday

The Arcadia Woman's Club will meet Wednesday at the clubhouse for a noon luncheon. The Junior Woman's Club will be in charge of the program, as the honored section of the club.

They will present Nina Varela, comedy star of two continents, who will give her own inimitable farcical-factual discussions of problems of the day in "If I Am Elected." Nina Varela is a large package deal—comedy, intelligence, good taste, acting ability, native wisdom in world and local affairs, an ad lib wit that embraces all—an ambassadress at large. She is a linguist, whose operatic career was interrupted by World War II. She speaks German, Italian French, with a smattering of Spanish and Hungarian. Her take-offs on grand opera, her Marie Dressler type of sketch, her whirling ballet steps (a feat for a 200 lb. girl) and the female politician leaves her audience with shouts of laughter.

She has worked with Jackie Gleason, Robert Montgomery, Milton Berle, Ed Wynn, Lauritz Melchior, Garry Moore, Jimmie Durante and Steve Allen, to name a few. She has been in more than 80 TV shows, summer dramatic stock and musical comedies.

HARRIETT SILVER CONDUCTS JUNIOR SYMPHONY DELIGHTFUL IN ANNUAL SPRING CONCERT

By JESSIE GLOVER,
Tribune Music Critic

It is always a pleasure to attend a San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Concert, for I know these young musicians will be thoroughly trained for the event. This proved especially true Sunday afternoon, Mar. 19, when they performed their Spring Concert to a near-capacity house in Monrovia's Clifton Auditorium. Harriett Scott Silver is their conductor.

The Arcadia Women's Club founded this organization 10 years ago and still supports it. Linda Northrop of Arcadia is one of its present violists. Its age group is from 8 to 18. It rehearses in Arcadia.

SHORT AND GAY

Gowned in a bouffant-skirted black chiffon dress over matching lace Harriett Scott Silver looked petite and fragile as a French doll as she stepped up on the podium. She opened with the Offenbach-Dorati "La Vie Parisienne Overture" that was just short and gay enough to set the mood for the afternoon. She followed it with the "Allegro vivace" movement of Mozart's "Symphony in C major," known as the "Jupiter Symphony." The orchestra played the movement with firm-toned conviction.

In duet the young violinist Barry Socher did a nice job of bowing "Legende" by Wieniawski, while Robert Farber's piano was neither too obvious nor too weak.

Mrs. Silver turned and faced the audience, which was comprised of about two-thirds children. "Listen for the meowing of the cat in our next number, Leroy Anderson's 'Waltzing Cat.'" During the tantalizing melody many instruments meowed in realistic fashion, delighting young and old.

HEAD FOR STAGE

"The Ash Grove" arranged by N. B. Black for harp is a music box folk tune. It sounded exactly like one as Cheryl Lehman played it on her harp, slowing down at the end like a music box that has run down. The children went wild over it; during intermission they plunged up on stage and ran their fingers over the strings of Cheryl Lehman's harp.

Prokofiev's graphic "Peter and the Wolf," a symphonic tale for children, was narrated by Bill Bowen with dramatic candor as the orchestra played the music. In this extravagant work a flute plays the bird-notes, an oboe the duck's voice, a clarinet the cat's footfalls. Grandpa becomes the grumpy bassoon, the wolf is 3 French horns played in unison. Peter is represented by all the strings in a carefree motif, and kettle and bass drums are rifle shots. The narrator relates how Peter captures a wolf and induces the hunters who come upon the accomplished deed to drag it to the zoo.

FOOT-TAPPING

Gabriel - Marie's buoyant minor-moded "La Cinquaintaine" was played commendably by Barbara Rugh cellist and Joanne Murdoch pianist.

Selections from "Flower Drum Song" by Richard Rodgers set small hands and feet tapping rhythmically all over the house, and closed the delightful afternoon concert.

Harriett Silver is a thoroughly efficient orchestral conductor. The wide definitive sweep of her arms when conducting demands accurate rhythm, which is inherent in her. In her combine the patience and humor essential to conducting the young.

Garden Department Presents Woman's Club Luncheon Program

The Garden Department of Arcadia Woman's Club was the featured group at the club's mid-month meeting last week, presenting the program speakers and taking charge of table decorations.

Mrs. James Cogswell, Garden chairman, introduced Victor Pinkney, world renowned landscape architect and humorist, who spoke on community planning and development. His experiences in the Fallbrook Clean-up Program, urban redevelopment, water conservation and highway beautification, as well as plant development at Caltech, gave him much material to draw upon for his informative talk.

Also introduced was Mrs. Joseph Wajdik, who is chairman of the flower show to be held April 13 in the Woman's clubhouse. Mrs. Wajdik encouraged all club members to participate in the show and to ask their friends and neighbors to also make entries.

Mrs. Edward J. Verhoef, ways and means chairman of the club, asked members to bring their contributions for the forthcoming rummage sale to her home. The sale will be held April 29 at the clubhouse.

Luncheon was prepared and served by the International Relations Department, headed by Mrs. Aldon L. Melzian.

Mrs. Philip Sherk, club president, conducted a short business meeting and introduced guests of the day. Mrs. W. E. Evans of Boise, Idaho, sister of Mrs. Meri Clark; Miss Ann Scheuer, aunt of Mrs. Joseph Scheuer, and Mrs. Florence Holt of Wildrose, Wis., guest of Mrs. George Grinstead.

Art Department To Exhibit at Club Meeting

Finishing cookie jar covers for cookie containers and the making of pretty quilted coat hangers, was the project of the March meeting of the Arts and Craft Department of Arcadia Woman's Club. Mrs. Edward Verhoef, chairman, urged all members to furnish a finished article for the table which will be on display at the next meeting of the Woman's club in April to show what the Art and Craft department accomplishes during the year.

Mrs. Ann George and Mrs. Rose Lane were hostesses for the day and carried out the St. Patrick theme on the table with shamrocks, four-leaf clover and clay pipes. Jello and fruit were served by the committee with sandwiches and coffee.

Tea aprons will be the April meeting project.

No woman tires of a spring fashion show, especially when it's as artfully done as was "Springtime Fantasy in Fashions" by the Woman's Club of Arcadia at the Dinnerhorn Restaurant in Covina Tuesday. Pretty butterflies fashioned by Althea Hughes, adorned the room. Bertha Sherk, president of the group, greeted the women. Bobbie Shepherd and Gail Langlois graciously managed the show and luncheon. Among the 320 who attended were Lois Lee, Barbara Wagner, Virginia Titgemeyer, Timmy Petersilge, Rosalie Stapp, Micky Harbur, Denise Williams, Alberta Derry, Catherine Mundy, Vivian Dietz, and Lorraine Bode.

Club Music Group Holds Special Easter Program

Easter music was the highlight of last week's meeting of the Music Department of Arcadia Woman's Club, which was held at Church of the Good Shepherd.

Participating in the program were Margaret Bergstrom, soprano soloist; Marion Bridgeman, flutist, and Vivian Jordan, organist.

Mrs. Bergstrom sang "Beside the Still Waters" by Hamblen; "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," Liddle; "In My Fathers House Are Many Mansions," MacDermid; and "Were You There," a Negro spiritual arranged by White.

Marion Bridgeman played "The Swan" by Saint Saens, and "Sheep and Lambs" by Homer. She also played flute obligato to the vocal solo "Panis Angelicus" by Cesar Franck.

Mrs. Jordan accompanied and played two organ solos, "Communion," and "Truth Eternal," both by Van Hulse.

A short business meeting preceded the program and lunch was served afterward. Hostesses were Alice McAbery, Florence Clark, Mary Jean Foy and Gladys Dusenberry. Thirty-five attended.

Noted Soprano Entertains At Arcadia Woman's Club

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club and their special guests of the day—presidents of other clubs in the Verdugo District and district officers—were entertained by Miss Frances McCann, internationally known operatic soprano, at last Wednesday's annual Reciprocity Day luncheon in the clubhouse.

Hostesses of the day were the Arcadia Club's district chairmen, Mmes. Alby R. Foy, William S. Orr, Ernest J. Fuerst, Nelson K. Barris and Archie L. Wilson.

Miss McCann, introduced by Program Chairman Mrs. Harvey Thombs, has recently been named to the coveted role of prima donna of the West German Opera Company where she will appear for the next two years.

Her varied program included favorite songs of opera stars of earlier years, arias from "Faust" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" and several show songs.

Born in Monrovia

The artist, a valley resident who was born and raised in Monrovia where her family still resides, is Mrs. J. Walter Rodger Jr. in private life and the mother of four children. She studied with Guido Caselotti in Alhambra and at the age of 15 made her debut in "Traviata" at the Wilshire-Ebell Theater in Los Angeles. She later studied with the great Max Reinhardt on a scholarship award, at the same time appearing in the ensemble of the L.A. Civic Light

Opera, and attended Juilliard School of Music in New York.

Honored Guests

District officers introduced by president Mrs. Philip Sherk were Mrs. Edward Wylie, district president; Mrs. George Hohnsbeen, first vice-president; Mrs. William Adams, second vice president and member of the Arcadia club; Mrs. George Champlain, secretary, and Mrs. Ray Smallcomb, treasurer.

Visiting club presidents included Mmes. J. Roger Bentley, Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale; Claude Watson, Arroyo Vista Women's Club; Carey Dillman, Highland Park Ebell Club; Eileen Roberts, Goodwill Industries Women's Club; Charles Strine, Parliamentary Law Club, Glendale; Virginia Perry, Thursday Afternoon Club of Glendale; Lloyd Bass, district board alumna; and Miss Clara Sykes, Federation secretary representing the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

Spring Flowers

Arrangements of calla lilies, iris and sweet peas graced the luncheon tables and at each place setting was an Easter bonnet place card. Lovely corsages, made by Mrs. Althea C. Hughes, were presented to the honor guests.

In the absence of Mrs. N. E. Stadig, Mrs. M. R. Clark headed the decorating committee which included Mmes. George Fry, Homer Brown, Russell Lucas, Richard Nestler and Edward Verhoef.

During the business meeting, the club, which was responsible for bringing the first public library to Arcadia, voted to present a gift to the new library in honor of its dedication on Apr. 18. The gift will be microfilm needed to record the many newspapers the library has kept on file for the past 15 years.

Other announcements included plans for a rummage sale on Apr. 29 and a Scholarship Fund luncheon on Apr. 27 at the clubhouse.

SPRING FLOWER SHOW OPEN TO PUBLIC AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Arcadia Woman's Club is set for its annual spring flower show today, "Spring Moods," open to the public from 1 to 8 o'clock at the clubhouse, 324 S. First Ave.

Neighboring clubs and interested residents of the area were invited to place entries in competition for four beautiful gold cups to be presented sweepstakes winners in each class, and four additional prizes for "best in show."

A silver tea will be hosted from 1 to 5, with Mrs. Edward Verhoef presiding, assisted by members of the club's garden department. The tea table will be decorated in keeping with the theme of the show.

Drawings will be held during the tea for the many door prizes which have been donated by local nurseries. Drawings will continue until 8 p.m. Mrs. Joseph Wajdik is chairman of the event.

Arcadia Women To Attend District Event

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club will attend the district convention of the Verdugo District CFWC to be held April 20-21 at the Huntington-Sheraton in Pasadena. As a prelude to the convention a reception will be held at the hotel on April 19 at 8 p.m. for officers, chairmen, committees and club presidents.

Arcadians who will attend include: Mmes. Phillip Sherk, president, Lawrence Shepherd, E. J. Verhoef, Rose Lane, Althea Hughes, Richard Nestler, William Orr, John Le Noir, William Gibbs, John Rivhardson, William Adams, Michael Erickson, R. G. Adams Sr., Harry Russell, Archie Wilson, Bruce McAbery, Nelson Barrus, Alby Foy, Ernest Fuerst and Bert Schaar. Mrs. Ralph Long, retiring president of the Juniors, and Mrs. Edward Frank, incoming president, will also attend.

The two-day program will open Thursday morning in the ballroom at 9 with Mrs. Edward D. Wylie, district president, officiating.

24 Clubs Will Participate in Annual District Convention

PASADENA — Representatives from 24 women's clubs will gather in the ballroom of the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel Thursday and Friday for the annual convention of Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs.

The affair will begin Wednesday with reception at 8 p.m. for the district officers. Mrs. Edward D. Wylie, district president and a member of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale, will be hostess for the event.

The formal convention will begin at 9 a.m. Thursday. The first session will feature talks by Mrs. Guy J. Nelson, chairman of the consumer and finance division of CFWC, and Dr. Lewis A. Aleson, past president of the Los Angeles Medical Assn. and chief of staff at the County General Hospital.

Thursday's afternoon session will feature a talk by Dr. Tirso del Junco, a practicing physician and native of Cuba. He will discuss the current Cuban crisis.

Also scheduled for Thursday will be the convention banquet at 7 p.m. in the hotel ballroom. A historical pageant about "Ladies of the White House" will be presented.

Following the pageant, Carl Terzian will speak on "Our American Heritage."

The Friday morning session will be devoted to reports and workshops.

Following a noon luncheon at which Mrs. J. B. Atkisson, state chairman of conservation for CFWC, will speak on the "Penny Pines Memorial," reports by the district's junior membership will be read.

Convention Leader

Mrs. Harold Deavel is general chairman of the convention.

Clubs expected to be represented at the convention are the 20th Century Club of Eagle Rock, Tuesday Afternoon Club, Glendale Parliamentary Law Club, Glendale Thursday Afternoon Club, Goodwill Industries Women's Club, Highland Park Ebelle, La Crescenta Woman's Club, Michillinda Woman's Club and the Monrovia Woman's Club.

Woman's Club Will Elect Officers at Wednesday Meet

The Arcadia Woman's Club will hold its mid-month meeting Wednesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Philip Sherk, president, will preside at the noon luncheon meeting. Past presidents will be honored and future officers will be elected.

The program will be Ken Peters in "Time Out For Leisure." Mr. Peters is one of Hollywood's outstanding radio and TV personalities. Some will immediately identify him as the master of ceremonies of the award winning TV show "Success Story." Others will know him as "Dan" on radio's "One Man Family" or if they're still children at heart as the friendly host on the current "Crusader Rabbit" series. A graduate of the School of Speech at the University of Wisconsin, he has been active in Hollywood radio and TV circles for 15 years. Mr. Peters' "interpretive reading" ranges from dramatic gems with grass roots aroma through wholesome laughter and sometimes a tear. All is woven together with intelligent taste.

Mrs. Ray Allan Young, chairman, will preside, and Mrs. Robert Lane will be hostess at the coffee hour.

Guest speaker Wallace J. Lighthall of the College of Medical Evangelists, will discuss the specialized training afforded the sightless which enables them to lead active and zestful lives.

Mr. Lighthall majored in speech and English at the University of Southern California and represents Braille Institute as volunteer speaker of the Speakers' Bureau.

Two Piano Program Planned for Section

Mrs. Ahlert Stuhrman will host the Music Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia next Tuesday at 10:45 a.m. at her home, 1309 San Carlos Road. Mrs. Harvey Thombs is department chairman.

Mrs. Stuhrman and Mrs. Leonard Cartwright and Mrs. Della Cox and Mrs. Betty Logan will present a "two piano" program.

Salad and coffee will be served following the program.

International Affairs Group to Meet Monday

International Affairs Dept. of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will meet next Monday at 10 a.m. at the Glendale Federal Savings and Loan, 100 S. First Ave. Mrs. Aldon Melzian is chairman.

A coffee hour will precede the program which will be sponsored by Agustin Turner of International Service Committee of the Rotary Club of Pasadena.

Members are requested to bring their "magazines for friendship" or take them to Rose Lane's garage at 712 N. First Ave.

Woman's Club to Hold Rummage Sale Saturday

The Arcadia Woman's Club ways and means committee is planning a rummage sale next Saturday at the clubhouse, 324 S. First Ave., from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Anyone wishing to contribute articles for the sale may bring them to the home of the chairman, Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, 380 W. Camino Real, or call Hillcrest 7-7075 for pick up. No furniture or large items can be used.

The clubhouse will be open Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 at the kitchen for anyone wishing to bring donations of items at that time.

Outstanding Record

Woman's Club Elects Officers, Reviews Progress of Years

As the Arcadia Woman's Club elected its new president for the 1961-62 club year at last week's meeting, it also paid tribute to the 32 women who have led the club from 1914 to 1960 and had as special honored luncheon guests all former presidents who were able to attend.

Mrs. Alby R. Foy was named president to succeed Mrs. Philip Sherk, who has served during the past year. The new board includes Mrs. William Orr, first vice-president; Mrs. Michael Erickson, second vice-president; Mrs. Richard Nestler, third vice-president; Mrs. Harry Pon, fourth vice-president; Mrs. James E. Cogswell, recording secretary; Mrs. Herbert Glidden, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bert Schaar, Federation secretary; Mrs. William Adams, treasurer; Mrs. Jetta M. Yundt, senior trustee, and Mrs. Fred L. Morgan, junior trustee.

In addition to honoring past presidents, the club bestowed a special honor on Mrs. Edward Verhoef, ways and means chairman, by naming her "Clubwoman of the Year." The award, which included a lovely charm bracelet and a corsage, was presented by Mrs. Lawrence Shepherd.

Past presidents attending were Mmes. Charles W. Stewart, Harry W. Russell, John P. Ross, Ray Allen Young, J. K. Weems, Charles F. Ganther, Bruce G. McAbery, Earl H. Dettra, Daniel J. Slattery, Archie Wilson, William Adams, William D. Gibbs and Ernest J. Fuerst.

Mrs. Sherk, following an Academy Awards theme, gave verbal "Oscars" for the many achievements and the innovations introduced by the former presidents. Her summary told of the growth and progress of the still growing active club.

The club proudly lists the following accomplishments: the founding of the first lending library in Arcadia which has become the beautiful new library; the "Build Freedom for Youth" program; San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Orchestra; Arcadia Beautiful program; the first Family Counselling Service; the first Little Theatre group, as well as contributions to scouting, PTA, church and school. The club also gave $1,000 to help develop the Wilderness Area.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. K. Weems and 40 clubwomen, 22 valuable contributions for civic improvement and beauty were completed under the Build Freedom for Youth program. Forty flowering peach trees were given to the city under the Arcadia Beautiful project and these are now blooming behind the city hall. Paintings and books were also presented the Arcadia High School library.

The luncheon of the day was prepared and served by the Literature Dept. with Mrs. Bruce McAbery as chairman. Her committee consisted of Mmes. William Moberg, Robert Lane, Alby R. Foy, John A. Richardson and William Weaver. The tables were decorated with spring bouquets and Mmes.

Homer W. Brown, chairman, thanked Mmes. George F. Fry and Ranney Adams Sr. for donating the flowers. Mrs. Althea Hughes made lovely corsages for the honored guests.

Successful Flower Show Staged by Woman's Club

The clubhouse of the Arcadia Woman's Club was transformed into a beautiful garden for the annual spring flower show held last week. A large attendance enjoyed the displays and the lovely tea.

Mrs. Russell Lucas was Grand Sweepstake winner.

Other winners in the different classes were: Advanced Amateur Flower Arrangements, Mrs. John Guest won the sweepstakes; Mrs. Olwyn Stephens, second, and Mrs. M. R. Clark, third.

Novice Flower Arrangements: Mrs. Richard Nestler, sweepstakes winner; Mrs. Russell Lucas, second, and Mrs. R. L. Young, third.

Horticulture Class: William Wookey won the sweepstakes; Mrs. Clark, second, and Mrs. Young, third.

Planter Material Section: Mrs. Lucas, sweepstakes; Mrs. Young, second, and Mrs. Herbert Glidden, third.

All sweepstakes winners received beautiful trophy cups. In addition, many lovely gifts contributed by local merchants were given as prizes.

SYMPHONY GROUP TO PLAY FOR CLUB

ARCADIA — The Woman's Club, which founded the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Orchestra in 1951, will be entertained Wednesday by several members of the orchestra.

The luncheon event will be presided over by Mrs. Philip Sherk, president of the club.

Honor guests will include

Miss Lois Will, music supervisor for Alhambra Elementary School District; Mrs. William Merrihew, membership chairman for the Patrons' Assn. of the orchestra, and Mrs. Harriet Scott Silver, director of the orchestra.

To Entertain

Entertainers will include a woodwind quartet made up of J. D. Goddard, John Phillips, Vicki Merrihew and Nila Jean Hess.

Others who will play are Barry Socher, James Olson, James Peters and Miss Merrihew who will perform at the piano.

Luncheon reservations will be accepted until 6 p.m. Monday by Mmes. George Fry, Louise Ryan and R. C. Stackhouse.

Woman's Club Launches Book Drive for Indians

Mrs. Nelson K. Barrus, member of Arcadia Woman's Club and chairman of Indian Affairs for the Verdugo District CFWC, has announced a district project to provide books for an Indian Village trailer school on the Papago reservation in Sells, Ariz.

Mrs. Barrus has been working on the program, which has been approved by the United States Department of Interior Bureau of Indian Affairs, for two years through the Indian Center in Los Angeles and through contact with the Tribal chairman.

There are six little villages, each with a trailer school in need of books, Mrs. Barrus said. There is also an adult education program on the reservation.

Mrs. Barrus explained the project at a combined meeting of the Literature Department and the International Department of the Woman's Club last week, and both departments agreed to sponsor a drive for books in Arcadia.

Needed are encyclopedias, text books up to high school level, do-it-yourself books, craft books, physical education and children's books.

Mrs. Barrus pointed out to the club members that Communists are already working in the tribes and that she feels it is time for clubwomen to do something to counteract their influence.

Anyone willing to donate books is asked to call Mrs. Barrus, Hillcrest 6-2415.

Woman's Club Wins Awards At Convention

Delegates of the Woman's Club of Arcadia brought home awards from the Verdugo District convention held last week at the Huntington-Sheraton.

Mrs. Edward D. Wylie, district president, presented a well rounded program, and the speakers covered a wide range of subjects pertaining to happenings in the world today. Delegates were made aware of the dangers lurking in devious corners to our way of life, and each carried back to her own club the resolve to put forth every effort for its preservation.

The Arcadia president, Mrs. Phillip Shirk, and delegates from the club, with others of the district, presented a graphic picture of the tremendous accomplishments in their fields of endeavor last year.

The Arcadia Club received first place awards for the following: Literature and International Affairs Departments, work for youth and children and scholarships. Second place awards were given to International Hostess division and veterans' affairs.

To Observe Founding

SGV Junior Symphony to Play for Woman's Club

An outstanding program has been planned for the Woman's Club of Arcadia at next Wednesday's meeting, according to Mrs. John Ross. Members of the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Orchestra will present a musical afternoon. Now closing its 10th year of existence, the orchestra was founded by the Arcadia Woman's Club in 1951.

Young artists taking part will be J. D. Goddard, clarinet; Vicki Merrithew, bassoon; Nyla Jean Hess, flute; Barry Socher, violin; Jim Olson and Jim Peters, trumpet. The program will consist of: Allegro Brillante by Bach with clarinet, oboe, bassoon and flute; Sonata by Handel, a violin solo; Revolutionary Etude, by Chopin, piano solo, and Uwaldi Trumpet Concerto.

The Woman's Club has congratulated officers of the Patrons Association for their diligent efforts in helping to make the orchestra a success. The symphony is one of a very few young people's musical organizations which has not been subsidized by city, county or state funds. It depends entirely upon subscriptions from music-minded citizens interested in the musical and cultural development of young girls and boys of this area.

Youth Contest

The Arcadia Woman's Club took part in a contest sponsored by General Federation of Women's Clubs in 1951 with the theme of Building Freedom with Youth. The contest was for the purpose of stimulating the interest of youth in the community and to restate a strengthening of our heritage of freedom. The founding of the orchestra was one of 22 projects undertaken in that program. After its adoption by the club, the orchestra assumed the name of the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Orchestra and the late Harold H. Scott was engaged as director. The first concert was given at the Woman's Club with 55 in the orchestra.

The club was the sole support of the orchestra for two years and has contributed annually ever since. A patrons association was formed with officers and by-laws to execute the objectives and policies of the orchestra.

Special guests Wednesday will be Mrs. Harriett Silver, director of the orchestra, Mrs. L. Will, president of the Patrons Association of the orchestra, and Mrs. William S. Merrithew, membership chairman.

Luncheon will be served at 12 noon and a highlight of the day will be the celebration of the "10 Members" birthday party at the club. Mrs. Phillip Sherk will preside.

Arcadia Woman's Club Names Mrs. Verhoef 'Woman of Year'

Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, Elizabeth to her many friends, was given the "Woman of the Year" award recently by the Woman's Club of Arcadia. And in addition she was presented with a gold charm bracelet with a pendant reading "Woman of the Year."

Mrs. Verhoef is a worker behind the scenes, wherever a job has to be done she is there to do it, and many times her name goes unheralded. During her fifteen years as a member of the Arcadia Woman's Club, Mrs. Verhoef has served on the board three times, as junior and senior trustee and chairman. She is particularly interested in the Garden Department and has served as its chairman for two years.

She is a member and past president of the Thursday Morning Garden Club and outgoing director of California Garden Clubs, Inc. It has been under her direction that the annual flower show will be staged this weekend at the arboretum.

Mrs. Verhoef is an officer in the Temple City White Shrine, a member of the Arcadia Emblem Club and of the Eastern Star. She is also affiliated with the Arcadia Presbyterian Church and is an active worker in the Women's Association. She is presently chairman of Circle 2 of that organization.

She loves gardening and flowers and many club events have been staged in the lovely garden of her home on West Camino Real and "when the world catches up with her she goes in the garden and digs."

Elizabeth and husband have lived in Arcadia for fifteen years. They have four children, all married, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

WEEK END AT ARBORETUM

District Clubs to Hold Flower Show

"Seeders and Weeders" and "The Lady Bugs" are some of the names of 28 garden clubs which will sponsor the Fourth Annual Spring Flower Show to be presented this week-end, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, 301 N. Baldwin Avenue, Arcadia.

The 28 clubs comprise Arboretum District 12, California Garden Clubs, Inc., which will present the floral spectacle with the theme of "California Beauty and Bounty." Admission will be free.

Sponsoring clubs will be Altadena Garden Club, Arcadia Thursday Morning Garden Club, Arcadia Woman's Club Garden Section, Friend O'Garden Club, Green Thumbers of El Monte, Hastings Ranch Garden Club, La Canada Garden Club, Lady Bugs Garden Club and Little Garden Club.

Michillinda Woman's Club Garden Section, Pacific Rose Society (group), Pasadena Garden Club, Seeders and Weeders, Sierra Madre Garden Club, Southern California Iris Society (group), American Bulb Society (group), The Forty Planters, Garden Club of South Pasadena, Tillers Club, Year Around Garden Club, San Gabriel Valley Orchid Hobbyists (group), Junior Garden Clubs—Sprouts and Bulbettes, Cerebral Palsy and Muscular Distrophy "Junior" Green Thumbers, Foothill Garden Club, and Las Jardineras.

Hours of the Spring Flower Show will be from 2:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday; 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday, and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

on Sunday.

Director of the show will be Mrs. E. J. Verhoef of Arcadia. The general chairman will be Mrs. F. E. Bertholet, also of Arcadia. Glenn Hiatt, of the Arboretum staff, will coordinate the event.

International Section Meets This Morning

International Affairs Dept. of the Arcadia Woman's Club will meet this morning at 10 at the Glendale Federal Savings and Loan, 100 South First Ave., with Mrs. Aldon Melzian, chairman, presiding. "Magazines For Friendship" will be packed to be sent abroad. There will also be a short business meeting.

Mrs. Nelson Barrus requests the members to bring books for the Indian Reservation.

Art-Craft Group Elects Officers

The Arts and Crafts Department of Arcadia Woman's Club elected new officers at the last meeting, with Mrs. Leslie Campbell named as new chairman.

Mrs. Edward Verhoef, retiring chairman of the department, was elected vice-chairman; Mrs. Helen Granite, treasurer; Mrs. Lloyd Hatch, secretary, and Mrs. Harriet Leitz, project chairman.

Installation will be held at the May 15 luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Katherine Brown, 449 Sharon Road.

Work project for the April meeting was making aprons for all purposes. After a morning of sewing, luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Thomas Scott Swirles, and the business meeting followed.

GARDEN SECTION

Garden and Home Dept. of the Arcadia Woman's Club will meet Wednesday at 10 a.m., in the clubhouse with Mrs. James Cogswell presiding. Dariel Haye will speak on "garden lighting." Coffee and cake will be served.

Breakfast to Finance Tribune Micro-Filming

A bountiful breakfast May 24 will initiate a fund-raising campaign that eventually will lead to micro-filming of the Arcadia Tribune, present and past, for a permanent historical record at the Arcadia Public Library.

Announcement of the project was made this week by Mrs. Harry Russell, chairman of the Civic Committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

Micro-filming of the Tribune will provide quick, easy to use, and permanent records of the newspaper's continuing report on the city and its activities, according to Mrs. Jess Balser, a member of the committee.

The breakfast will be held at the Woman's Club, 324 S. First Ave., with serving scheduled from 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. All members of the organization will assist in the preparation and serving of the breakfast.

Donation will be $1.00.

The bountiful part:

Orange juice, country-fresh scrambled eggs, "frizzled" ham, crisp, hash-brown potatoes, "ovenly" biscuits, honey and apple butter, hot coffee, tea and milk.

You're invited.

Mrs. Ray Allen Young Heads Combined Woman's Club Group

Literature and International Affairs Departments of the Woman's Club of Arcadia combined recently to work together as a single unit with the theme of the year "Our American Heritage and Freedoms."

The group installed new officers last Wednesday at a meeting at the home of Mrs. John Richardson with Mrs. Philip Sherk, Club president, as installing officer.

Mrs. Sherk used the theme for the installation ceremony and presented each incoming officer with a scroll tied in red, white and blue. Mrs. Ray Allen Young heads the combined department as chairman. Serving with her will be Mrs. Richardson, vice chairman of the Literature; Mrs. Carlton Eckermann, vice chairman of International Affairs; Mrs. Lucy I. Wyss, secretary, and Mrs. Esther Hanna, treasurer.

The Literature group presented Mrs. Shirk with a gift, and one to Mrs. Young, who served as chairman, reported that six boxes of books have been donated for the Papago Indians in Southern Arizona mobile school. She also announced the Indian Art and Crafts display on Barnsdale Park, Los Angeles, June 1-21, and the Inter-Tribal Pow Wow at Sagus June 16-18.

This marked the final meeting of the group until October although the board will meet during the summer. The meeting days will be the fourth Wednesday of the month with the exception of November when it will be the fifth Wednesday.

Mrs. Beth Nichols presented each lady with a copy of the Bill of Rights during the installation meeting.

Art-Craft Group Of Woman's Club Installs Officers

New officers of the Arcadia Woman's Club Arts and Crafts Department were installed recently at a luncheon meeting hosted at the home of Mrs. Katherine Brown.

Mrs. Leslie Campbell was installed as new chairman of the group, succeeding Mrs. Edward Verhoef, who then assumed the office of vice-chairman. Mrs. Philip Sherk, president of the Woman's Club, officiated as installing officer.

Others installed were Mrs. Lloyd Hatch, secretary; Mrs. Helen Granite, treasurer, and Mrs. Harriet Leitz, projects chairman.

Mrs. Sherk presented each new officer with a tiny ribbon tied box as she read a quotation fitting her particular office. Opened at the conclusion of the ceremony, the boxes revealed "tools of the trade," needle, thread, ribbon, buttons, etc., with which to create.

Mrs. Verhoef presided at a short business meeting before the installation. She thanked her board for their help and cooperation during the year and presented each with a party purse. She in turn was presented with a gift of lingerie.

Mrs. Verhoef presented the incoming officers with corsages of pink flowers and maline.

During the business meeting Mrs. Verhoef announced that the group had received a first award at the recent Verdugo District convention at the Huntington Sheraton Hotel.
